Catholic Charities, as stewards of in-kind donations, is responsible for insuring that the value of each item is maximized through the most efficient and effective means. This is accomplished through direct distribution of donated goods to clients-in-need, sharing of goods with other agencies, or sale of goods through Catholic Charities' TurnStyles Thrift Store where 100% of all proceeds are used to generate revenue for the above programs.

Catholic Charities
OF NORTHEAST KANSAS

All donations to Catholic Charities are income tax deductible. Donated goods and services are deductible at their present fair market value. Internal Revenue Service code places the responsibility for estimating the value of the donated goods and services on the donor. "Fair market value" is interpreted as the price a buyer is willing to pay and a seller is willing to accept.
